Inspirational

I MAGES

What inspires a person to spend long hours practicing for an athletic event, a performance at half-time, or a math or debate competition? What inspires a person to spend hours studying for an exam or writing a term paper? There is an inspirational air throughout the halls of Southwest. Teachers encourage students to do their academic best in the classroom, coaches work hard to develop their players' athletic skills, and sponsors of various activities strive to bring out the best in students in everything from marching in the band to participating in community projects. These inspirational images form a continuous cycle — the excellent performances of students inspire the faculty, parents, and other students to work harder and thus provide inspiration for these young people to continue their quest for excellence. This cycle creates a development of pride in oneself and in the school, which is displayed by the energy, enthusiasm, and dedication of everyone involved.

Individual

I MAGES

The images of individuality stand out as you look among the accented Southwest campus. Every student's originality stands out in the way they dress, different hairstyles, their personality, and what they drive. There are people who dress "preppie" and there are people who make extreme statements in their clothing. Hairstyles vary in many ways. Today lines and words are being shaved into hair. Ponytails are now being worn not only by girls, but guys too. Personality tells a lot about the identity of a person. Some people are wild, flirtatious, cunning, and boisterous while others are calm, shy, honest, and quiet. There has been many new trends and graphics created for cars and trucks. Low rider trucks have graphics and stereo systems to accessorize them, while 4x4 trucks have big tires for mud riding. At Southwest, uniqueness is respected, not criticized.

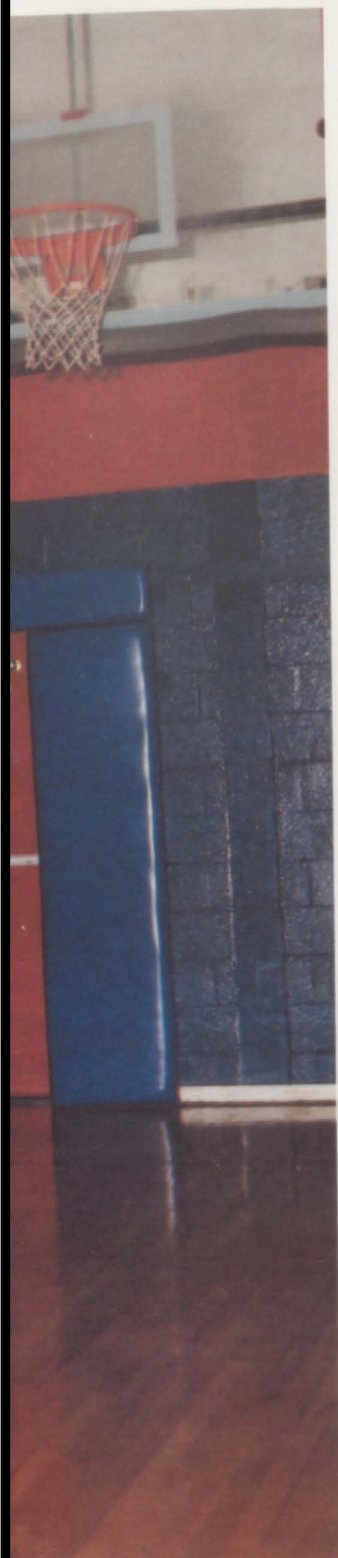

Inside

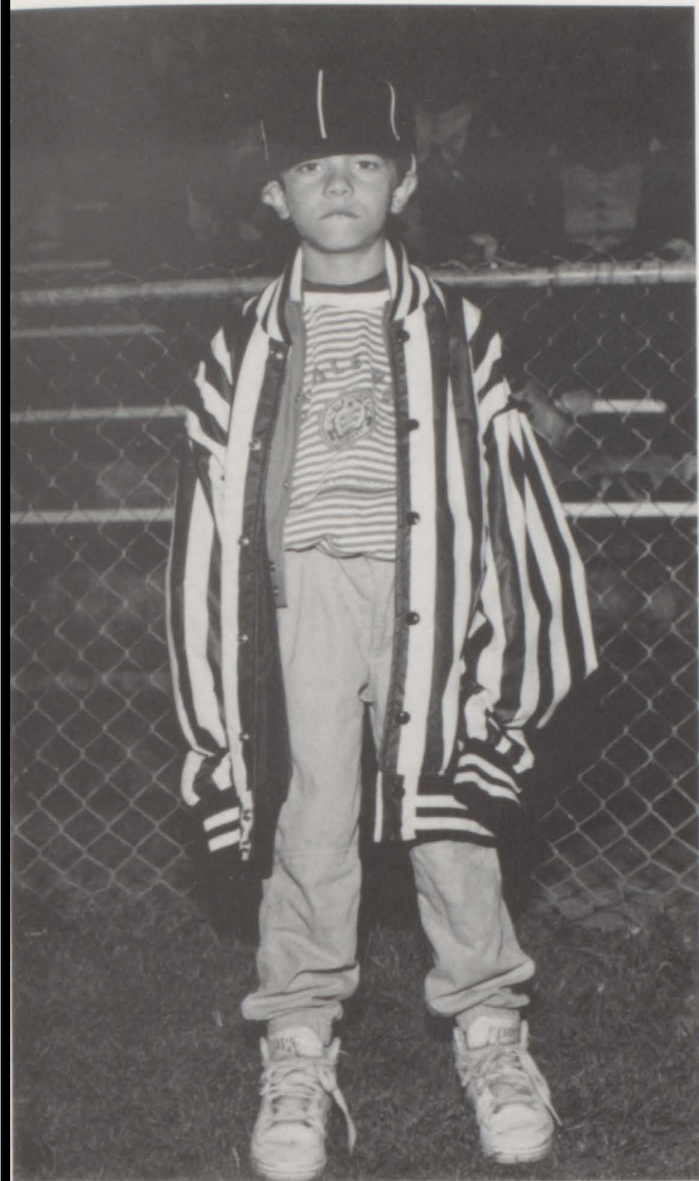

I MAGES

The old saying "You can't judge a book by it's cover" or "Beauty is only skin deep, but comes from within" is certainly true of Southwest High School. Inside the bricks and the mortar exist feelings of unity and togetherness — a feeling of belonging. These are images that cannot be touched, but everyone knows that they are there. The bonds between faculty and students as well as the strong friendships that develop between students are displayed in the daily activities at Southwest. "The Wall", for example, is the popular meeting place for students after lunch. Here the students catch up on the latest gossip and even do last minute cramming for a test. There is more inside the walls of Southwest than the desks, overhead projectors, bulletin boards, textbooks, lectures, bells ringing, and students talking — there is the intangible inside image of compassion and knowing that someone cares. At Southwest, losses are never considered failures because we know there is always a tomorrow.

Southwest Conquers All!

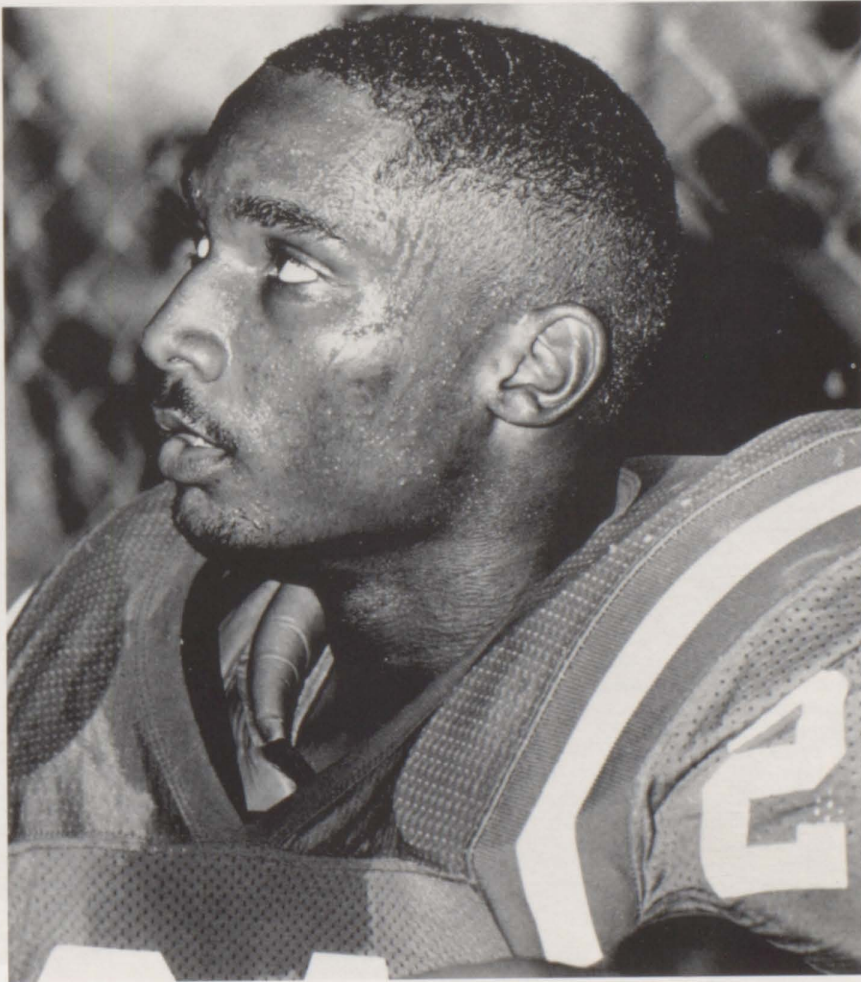

Watch out! The young Southwest Patriots are already making a showing. After many of the players graduated last year, everyone expected the Patriots to have a difficult season but this awesome team of inexperienced players decided not to take it lying down. Instead the team pooled their talents to pull out a final record of 5-5, not to mention capturing the city championship, for the third consecutive year, over Central in a 28-14 victory. Not bad for a team of rookies. They not only won five games, they massacred five teams.

In the first game against Banneker they showed what they were made of in a 53-6 victory. Who's calling them rookies? The team used the next two losses to Mays and Tift Co. as valuable learning experiences. They then regrouped to come from behind and win in the nail-biting last minute against Baldwin with a final score of 13-7. On a roll, the mighty Patriots went on to maul Butler with a 34-0 victory. After a few minor setbacks the team ended the season triumphantly, stomping Northeast into the ground, setting the stage for their brilliant finale in the City Championship.

Fearsome Patriots

The Southwest football team is truly unequalled. Five of our athletically superior Patriots made the All-City Football Team. Out of this outstanding five, two were selected for the All-Middle Georgia Football Team. Haywood Simmons, who has signed to play with the University of Wisconsin, made the team with twenty tackles and twenty assists. Along with team mate James Flowers, who has signed with the University of South Carolina. Linebacker Brad Simmons made seventy-four tackles, forty-three assists, three quarterback sacks, and one interception. Marcus Dupree made the All-City squad by making sixty tackles, forty-eight assists, plus his contributions on offense. Carlos Blake was excepted to the All-City squad with twenty-three tackles, seven assists, and one interception. He has signed to play with East Carolina University. Other players to be chosen for the All-City team were Tim Hicks and Shay Hatcher. Congratulations to all these exceptionally gifted athletes on a job well done.

In The Spotlight

This year's team has been truly awesome. But you know how the old cliché goes "Behind every great football team is a great group of coaches." Due to the hard work and dedication of the coaches the Southwest Patriots have excelled this year.

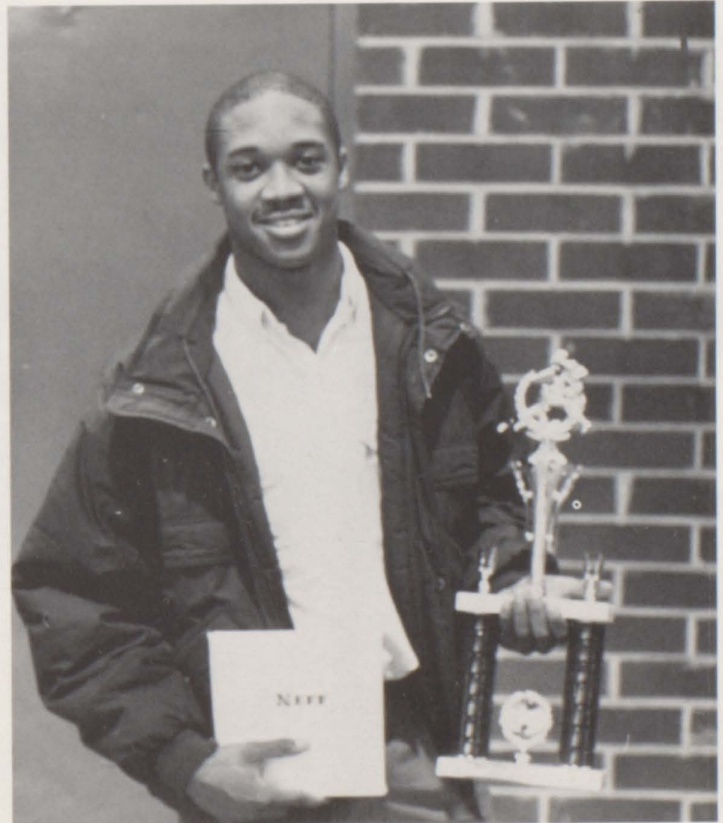

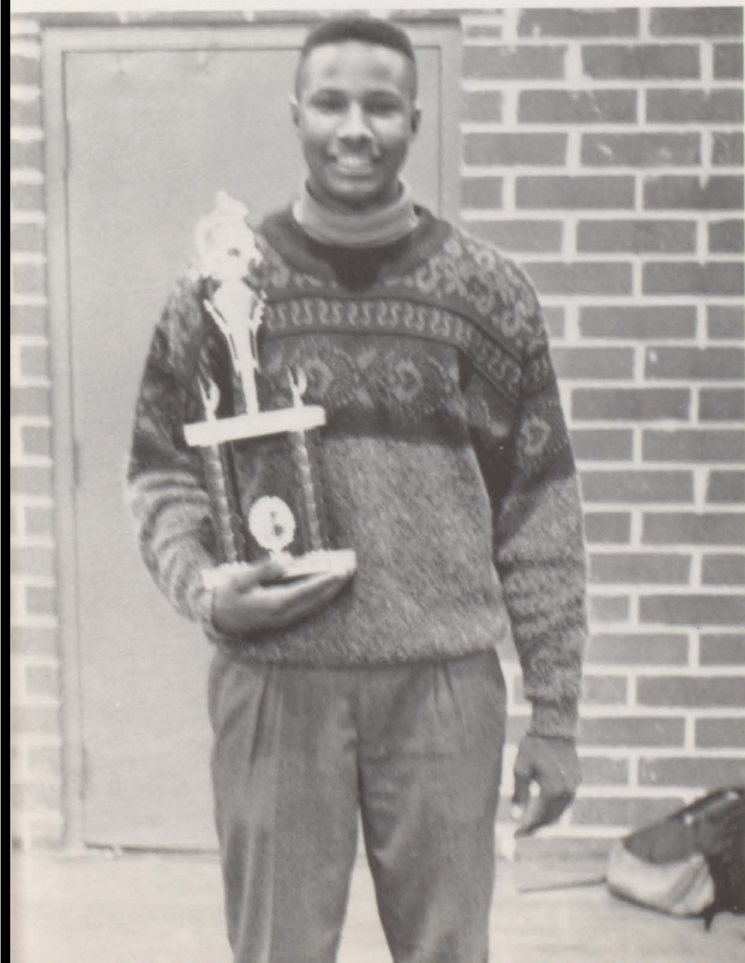

Sincerest thanks for the great efforts of Harvey Appling — Offensive Line Coach, Danny Grube — Defensive Coach, Clyde Barden — Defensive Back Coach, Richard Plagge — Offensive Back Coach, Haywood Simmons, Sr. — Assistant Coach, Iris Hill — Assistant Coach, Albert Sharpe — Assistant Coach, and Edgar Hatcher — Head Coach, without them we would have no team.

Giving It Their All!

Southwest's upcoming football stars fought a long hard battle in 1990. The B-Team began the year with a slow start. Losing their first two games despite admirable efforts, they still never gave up hope. In the next two games they defeated Central and Northeast and earned the title "Co-City Champs." Coaches Iris Hill and Albert Sharpe did a fantastic job with this exuberant team. Team players such as Brent Joyner, Royce Ivery, Gerald Polite, Marcellis Jacobs, Tim Gordon, and Charles Halligan showed outstanding skills along with great leadership in helping the team capture the championship.

The Ninth Grade Team started out the year with a close victory over Northside, winning 6-0. The next two games were not as profitable. Still this did not discourage our young, hard-working team in giving the game their best effort. In the last game of the season the improving ninth grade team conquered Northeast in a year ending triumph. Excellent coaching by Haywood Simmons and John Mathews helped in bettering the players skills for many tasks to come.

Glorious!

The Southwest Lady Patriots did an outstanding job in defeating teams in their very tough region. The team worked well on the field as the whole team pulled together. Coach Dannah Graham had a great cast of seniors on this year's team. The seniors receiving awards for their contribution on the team are: Taniece Smith, Melody Sanford, Tiffany Gildersleeve, Lisa Howard, and Annie Bell McCray.

Young And Promising

Southwest wrestlers once again left their mark on opposing teams, with victories over Cook County 43-30 and Etowah 36-34. The Patriots took no mercy on their opponents. Facing a tough schedule, they quickly raised their season record to 9-6. Led by seniors Terrence Williams and Haywood Simmons, Southwest had a dynamic year. Williams finished the year with a 28-2 record, and a High School record of 96-15, capturing such titles as Hornet Classic Champion, Fitzgerald Invitational Champion, SW Invitational Champion, and Area Champion. Simmons ended the season with a 26-6 record and accomplishments such as Hornet Classic, 3rd place, Runner-up Fitzgerald Invitational, SW Invitational Champion, and 3rd in the Area. In the SW Invitational Simmons was announced as Most Outstanding Wrestler. These young, talented Patriots assure a promising season next year.

Ready for a Challenge!

The Lady Pats are always ready for a challenge no matter what the odds. This year has definitely been a struggle, but the team has proven that it is a force to be contended with. Their determination made a huge difference in a heart wrenching game against Northeast at the Coliseum — they kept the entire crowd on the edge of their seats. The score between the two teams never varied for more than a few points, but determined to win, the Lady Patriots let nothing stand in their way as they went on to defeat Northeast 56-54, winning the game in overtime. Then in an awesome game against Mays, they soundly improved their ability with a 64-25 victory, which was more than backed up by their bone-chilling defeat of Central, 59-27.

Coaches Albert Sharpe, Iris Hill, and David Reid have been an inspiration and a guiding hand to the young Lady Pats. They've helped each player reach her full potential, making the most of the brilliant talent found on the team.

Promising Future

The team's unique talent was found in starters Lisa Howard, Tonya Woolfolk, Taniece Smith, Asa Grant, and Tanyeka Dent who provided the team with a strong foundation. Lisa Howard was the leading scorer, averaging 14 points a game. Taniece Smith, the leading rebounder, was second in scoring and "Speedy" Tonya Woolfolk averaged two steals per game.

However, Coaches Albert Sharpe, David Reid and Iris Hill did not rely only on seniors. Sabrina Nelson, Tameka Clark and Shantelle Oliver give Southwest a promising future.

Red Hot!

The Southwest Patriots had another exciting season, finishing with a record of 23-5. Coached by Don Richardson, Clyde Barden, and Ronald Taylor the team entered the state tournament, and won their first two games. In the semi-finals, the Patriots lost to the eventual state champion, Statesboro, 63-65.

One of the season's highlights was the News and Observer Holiday Festival Christmas Tournament in North Carolina. Southwest finished second in the tournament, losing in the championship game, 73-76. The Southwest team was awarded the Sportsmanship Trophy.

On December 7, the Patriots showed rival Vanguard, of Ocala, Florida, how to play basketball "Southwest style." In front of 18 million, on national T.V., the Patriots cruised to an impressive 87-44 victory. The game was carried by SportsChannel America, which televises outstanding teams that have standout players and a traditional rivalry.

This year's B-Team boys basketball team was coached by Ronald Taylor. They displayed their talent with five wins and one tie. Coached by Eddie Robinson, the Ninth grade boys basketball team also showed potential with a record of 6-4.

The B-Team girls, coached by Iris Hill, and the Ninth grade team coached by Harvey Appling, were not as fortunate as their counterparts, but also worked hard.

How 'bout them Pat's?

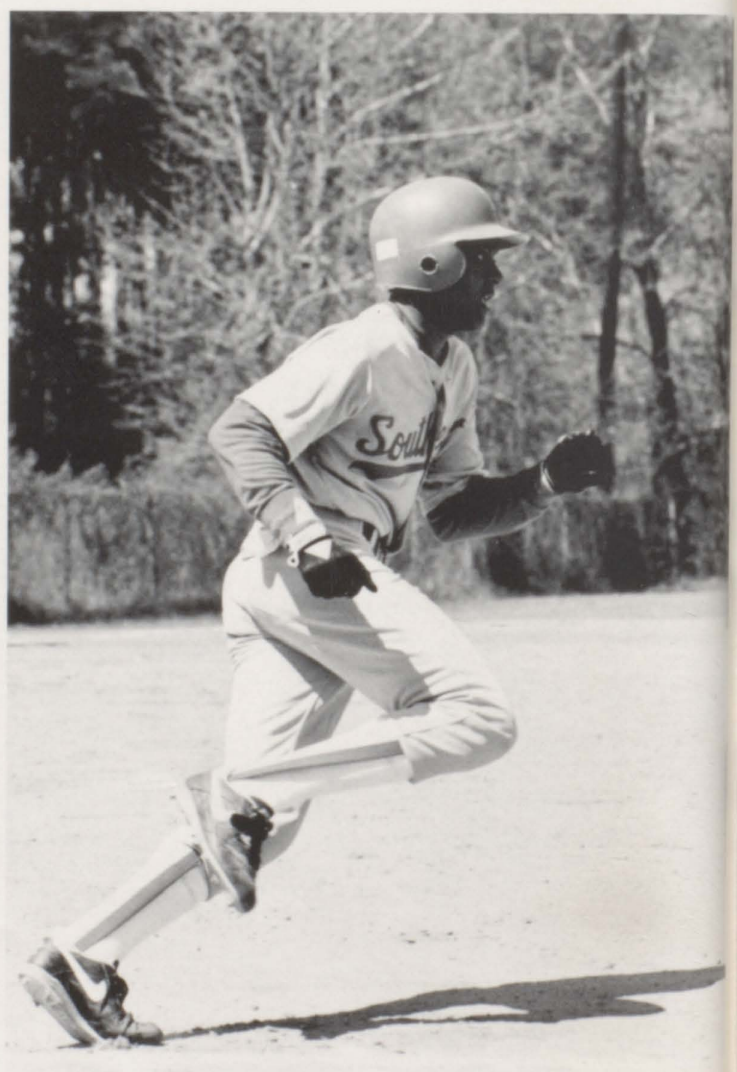

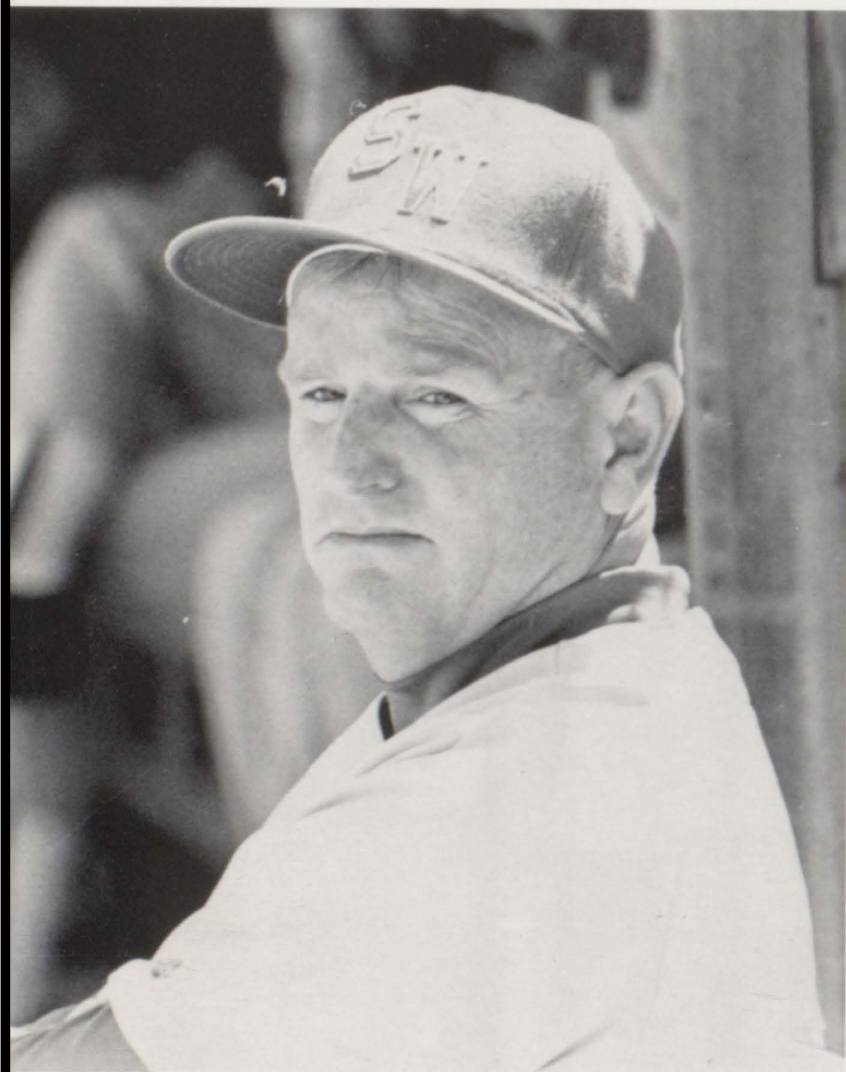

The Southwest Patriots baseball team began their season with two heartbreaking losses to Clark Central and Jones County; each by only one run. Instead of falling into a slump over the defeats, the Pats came back like the champs that they are, with two bone-crushing victories over GMC. They also earned the title of "Tournament Champions" in the Lem Clark Tournament, annually attended by Southwest. The team not only defeated, but cruised by Central, Northeast, and Warner Robins along the way to earning the championship.

During the season, the Pats suffered a couple of disappointing losses at the hands of Northside and Baldwin. However, the team rebounded with two wins over Northeast and upset Jones County, 9-3, giving them an over-all season record of 9-11.

The Patriots look to extend their winning tradition into the upcoming year. With some starters returning for the '92 season, and with the young and talented additions, the coming season looks promising.

In the Swing of Things

Our Southwest B-Team was under the leadership of Coach Grube and Coach Mathews this year. The team had a successful year with wins over rival teams such as Northeast, Baldwin County, and the 12-0 massacre of the Central Chargers.

Despite their 3-8 overall record, the players learned important lessons of the game throughout the year. Their skills and knowledge should make them great additions to our varsity squad next year.

Different Strokes

The Southwest Girl's Track team has had an exhilarating but very competitive year. The Girl's 440 relay team, made up of Tashia Hill, Tricia Jarrell, Tashania Gordon, and Tonya Woolfolk had an over-all time of 50:35, the best in the region. Another first was made by Tonya Woolfolk who placed 4th in the 100 yard dash and 1st in the broad jump in the State Competition. Two Freshmen, Tashania Gordon and Carla Rhyne, had a very spectacular year and are running towards the future.

Determined

The Boys' track team had an outstanding season, competing against teams all over the city. The team was coached by Clyde Barden, who guided the determined team to the Region 2AAAA track meet. Carlos Blake notably won first place in the 330-meter intermediate hurdles, first place in the long jump, and second place in the 440-meter dash. These outstanding feats qualified Blake to compete in the State track meet, where he came in third place in the long jump.

Shooting For Par

The Southwest Golf Team had a grueling competitive schedule this year, playing several highly experienced teams. However, with the help of Coach Robert Plagge the golfers went on to defeat teams from both Southeast and Northeast. Leading the Southwest golfers at Jones Creek in Augusta was Senior Danny Rumney. The team placed sixth in their region at this competition.

Considering that the team had only two returning players, Brad Simmons and James Flowers, they surprisingly ended the season with a respectable record and proved that it's not the size of the team but the skill and determination of its members that counts.

Score!

The Southwest Soccer team has had a grueling year. Even though half of the players were rookies in the game of soccer, the team never gave up. However, Robert Fightmaster soon whipped the team into shape, making the most of strong players like Bennie Smith and Jeffrey Wilder. Proving that inexperience isn't everything, they earned quite a few victories, and in the end, they were only one game away from City Champions. Surely this team will be one to watch in the future.

TENNIS

Never Giving Up

Even when times were rough the Southwest boys' and girls' tennis teams never gave up. Whether they were playing the toughest of teams or the easiest, they gave it their all. They finished the season with a record of 4-6 for the girls' and 3-7 for the boys. The teams were coached by Iris Hill and Don Richardson.

All-American Spirit

Under the care of Shelia Bell, the Southwest Varsity Cheerleaders had an exciting year! They spent a trying week at the Universal Cheer-ing Association camp learning cheers, chants, and competitive dances. The squad brought back the coveted Spirit Stick. Andrea Mallory and Akebulan Cliett were chosen for the All-American Cheerleading Squad.

The active girls went to the tournament game in North Carolina during Christmas vacation. Although the patriots did not win the tournament, they were not discouraged; they kept with the All-American spirit!

"Get Fired Up!"

The B-Team and Ninth Grade cheerleaders were certainly on fire this summer. The peppy group attended a week-long workshop at West Georgia College in sunny Carrollton, Georgia. Their week came to a glorious end with multiple ribbons of excellence, and by taking first place in the dance competition.

However, the two squads didn't stop there, their job had barely begun. They were at every basketball and football game, with great enthusiasm, to lend their support to our teams. In the cold and rain they courageously led the crowd in cheers.

Food and Fun

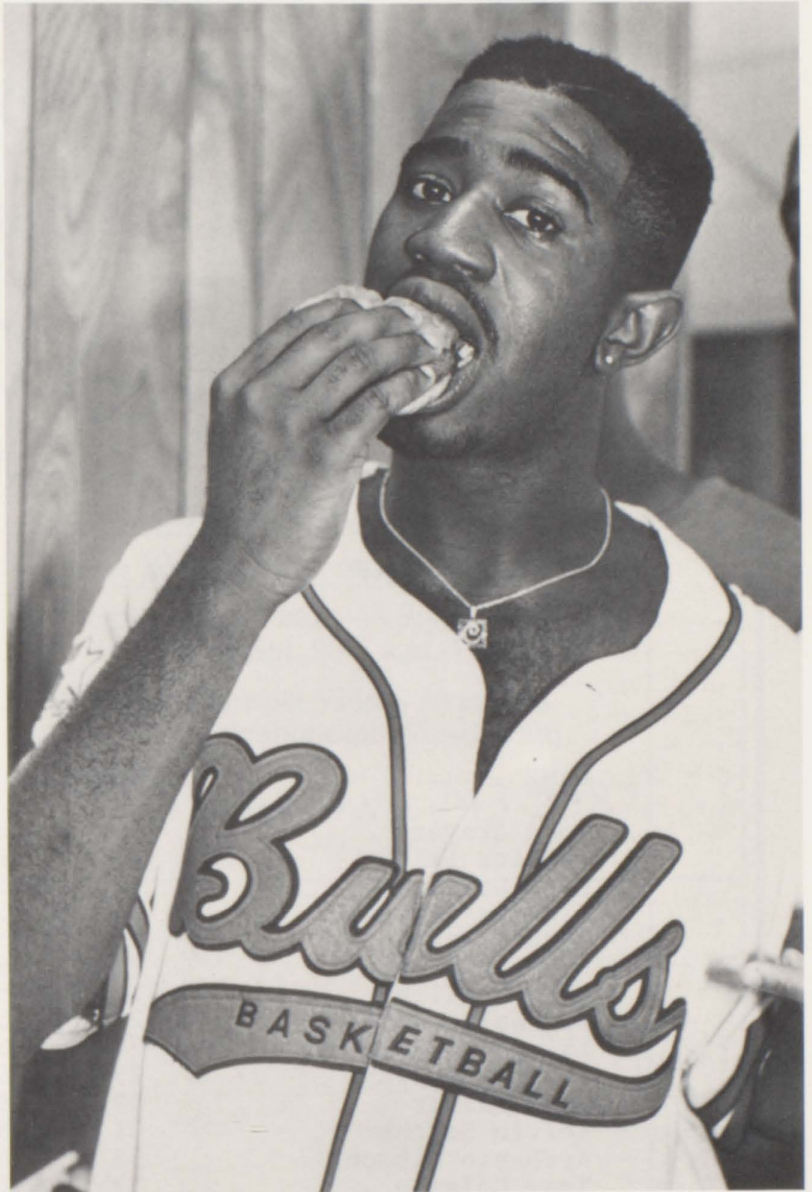

It was hot, it was sandy, it was the All Sports Picnic held at Lake Tobesofkee on Wednesday, May 22, for all athletes, cheerleaders, and Pep Club members. The frolicsome affair is an annual event sponsored by the Pep Club.

The coaches arrived early and fought the smoke to cook hamburgers and hot dogs for the hungry bunch. Then it was time to stuff yourself to the limit with all the goodies. These hard working athletes had given their all for Southwest during the year and now it was time to relax — everyone had a great time.

Eventually the fun subsided long enough for the coaches to hand out trophies, plaques, and medals to members of the wrestling, tennis, baseball, soccer, and boys and girls track teams. The Pep Club made a special presentation to Coach Don Richardson in honor of his retirement from Southwest.

Chocolate is Dr. Watkins' secret for success.

Mrs. Richardson's all work and no play!

Mr. Mays catches another victim.

Southwest's Patriotic Leaders

The image of Southwest's administrative staff has changed this year. We have a new Complex Principal. Dr. Columbus Watkins (opposite page - seated, middle), who keeps things running smoothly at Southwest. We also have Mr. David Reid (opposite page - seated, right) who is the new Assistant Principal of Willingham A. Other administrators that are a part of

These patriotic leaders have great responsibilities and pressures to keep them busy throughout the year. However, they keep the school running efficiently with an air of friendliness and spirit. The combination of these leaders' hard work makes the Southwest image definitely one that is hard to match.

Mr. Grenga assumes his "hall position."

Mr. Reid gives out another detention.

Is Mr. Rogers calling you to the office?

The Southwest Brady Bunch

At Southwest the profession of teaching has grown into a "family affair." There are teams of sisters, and brothers-in-law, and sisters-in-law. Mrs. Ida Jordan and her sister Mrs. Mary Glover are both English teachers; they not only share the love of teaching English, but also admire the same style of clothing, prefer the same religion, and are lovers of basketball.

Our other sister-sister duo includes the Phillips sisters. They have their different areas of teaching, but both revel in the beauty of the outdoors, participate in handgun competitions, and enjoy the excitement of traveling internationally. Bitsy, an English teacher, prefers traveling in Scotland while Virginia, the Social Studies teacher, prefers the Middle East.

A step from the Willingham B home into the Willingham A home takes us to the rooms of our brother-in-law/sister-in-law combination. Mrs. Gwen Simmons and her brother-in-law, Mr. Haywood Simmons, are not only related through marriage, but also through their love of Math. Their after school enjoyments range from watching their sons kicking and running the football to Public Speaking.

Last but not least our family trio, Coach Albert Sharpe and Mrs. Sherry Reid are both married to the siblings of Mrs. India Cater. The two women in this set are Science teachers while the man of the group serves as coach of the Lady Patriots. After retirement Coach Sharpe wishes to become a landscaper. Mrs. Reid derives enormous amounts of pleasure from collecting exquisite Chinese Porcelain and Mrs. Cater delegates her after school energy to the tennis court.

This well-rounded group some how formed a family and joined with the other members of the Southwest household to make our "home" a School of Excellence.

Personal Touch

For thirteen years Mrs. Sherry Reid, Chemistry teacher at Southwest, has been collecting and furnishing her home with Oriental accessories. She likes the color scheme and the style of the Orient. At present, Mrs. Reid has approximately forty-five pieces in her collection.

An avid pig collector, Dannah Graham, has been collecting pigs for eight years. Her most valuable one was a gift from her father, who brought her a cut glass crystal and gold pig from South America. As a practical joke, two students gave her a "live" pig that she named Porky, who grew to be 400 pounds.

Sports have always been a part of Iris Hill's life. During her high school years, she was involved in softball, basketball, and volleyball. Ms. Hill has led the Patriots to many victories. She loves watching football and swimming. Her most favorite ball team is the Southwest Patriots, but others include the Atlanta Braves, Atlanta Falcons, Georgia Bulldogs, and Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets. At Southwest, Iris Hill coaches basketball, tennis, and football. She is the only woman football coach in a Georgia high school.

It's A Teacher Thing

Spirit Week is a time honored tradition at Southwest. This tradition was just renewed this year. Everyone at Southwest participates in the competition including the faculty. A special day was set aside for the Southwest faculty to show their school spirit. Teachers dressed in their spirit costumes, which they personally designed and decorated. You could see everything from a "jazzed up" cap and gown to a wig of red, white, and blue pom-poms and even a real "live" Patriot. Each supervision also decorated their doors for the competition.

Here's Ms. Moore in her original graduation costume. Mr. Barfield, Miss Weaver, Mrs. Brown, and Ms. Fugate posed in front of Ms. Bell's prize winning door. Don't you just love those hats?

Patriot Power

At the end of his 21st year as coach at Southwest High School, Don Richardson has compiled an astonishing record of 464 wins and 89 losses. Under his leadership and guidance the Southwest basketball team has never experienced a losing season. The honors Coach Richardson has received over the 21 years include: Georgia Coach of the Year — 6 years, Regional Coach of the Year — 10 years, Middle Georgia Coach of the Year — 7 years, Middle Georgia Coach of the Decade — 1970-79, and Georgia Hall of Fame Coach of the Year — 1980. Because of his outstanding coaching experience he has been selected to coach the Georgia High School All Star Team and the All-American Team in the Dapper Dan Classic held in Pittsburgh each year. He has held basketball camps in St. Thomas, St. John and Tuitillo, Virgin Islands. Since 1987 he has been director of the Nike Camp at Princeton University. In 20 years at Southwest, 90 young men have received basketball scholarships to colleges. Included are 16 High School All-American and 4 players drafted by professional teams. In what little spare time Coach Richardson has off of the court, he enjoys spending it on the water fishing.

Feeding the Minds of Tomorrow

The Southwest lunchroom staffs deserve a big thanks from the students and faculty at Southwest. Every morning these staffs come to school early and are continuously busy throughout the day preparing meals. Many may not realize the hard-work put forth in order to get the students fed. The Willingham A lunchroom staff not only serves lunch, but breakfast as well. These efficient staffs must be well organized to keep the lunchrooms running smoothly. Everyone has to agree that the lunchroom staffs are a very essential image at Southwest.

Teachers Time Out

Instead of educating us during American Education week, the teachers entertained us with an assembly called "Teacher's Time Out." Mr. Gonzalez gave a wonderful rendition of "Chopsticks" on the piano. To the immense enjoyment of the student body, Mr. Jackson played jazz music on the saxophone. "Q-Rock", better know as Mr. Cubit, really enlivened the students with his rap, "Hype this Party Up." Mrs. Clett's solo, "Reach Out and Touch Somebody's Hand," truly moved the crowd. Perhaps the most enjoyed act was "Female Fascination," made up of 19 Southwest female teachers. Ms. Moore, dressed as a Chicago Bulls fan, lead the rap which she created. These teachers displayed a variety of attitudes shown by students, which included Mrs. Bell, a very preppy and sophisticated teenager; Mrs. Richardson, a high spirited cheerleader; Ms. Fugate, a very wild and exciting teenager; Mrs. V. Phillips a Heavy Metal fan; Mrs.

Norris, an enticing and seductive teenager; Mrs. Vinson's, "slap it up flip it, rub it down," really got a reaction from the students. Afterward, everyone agreed that the performance by the teachers was definitely a hit.

"Let's play ball," are familiar words to Lisa Howard. Influenced by her father and sister at the age of four, Lisa has been very active in sports. She is one of the few females to letter in three sports all four years at Southwest. Since the ninth grade Lisa has played Varsity basketball, softball, and tennis. Lisa has received numerous awards during her athletic career at Southwest. She enjoys playing basketball most of all and states that it challenges her mentally and physically each time she plays.

Lisa hopes to continue to be active in sports even after high school. She says, "It's a great way to relieve tension, build up your energy, and stay fit for life."

According to Paul Ogden, his interest in music developed at the age of seven and he gives his father credit for sparking that interest. He was named the Outstanding Jazz Instrumentalist and Soloist for the Southwest Jazz Ensemble. He favors jazz, blues, and country music. Paul has worked for the Macon Little Theatre, surrounding colleges, and other events. He plays the guitar, bass, and the mandolin. After graduation he would like to play for the Air Force Band.

Chad Dumas and Maurice Cobbs both have one thing in common: the love of art. With his brother as an influence, Chad learned to draw at the age of five. He says, "Art gives me a sense of what I will be doing in the future." Chad would like to major in art and hopes to be as big an artist as Dali.

Maurice Cobbs became interested in art at the age of ten when flipping through a comic book. Since then he has received several plaques and certificates, including two awards from Macon Telegraph for Best Artist. He plans to major in art and has hopes of fulfilling a career in animation.

Determination Brings Success

The success of the Southwest Band is the result of hard work and determination. It takes more than talent to become an outstanding marching band. Hours and hours are spent in hot, sweaty workouts during the summer. Even though the air is stuffy and it's hard to breathe, the band members determination and love for the band keeps them marching to the beat in the hot summer heat. They tried to beat the heat by wearing big hats or wrapping wet towels over their heads. When performance night arrived these long hours of practice paid off. As the band hit the field with their sharp routines and the crowd roared their approval, there was no doubt which band was the best in the state - Southwest Marching Band.

Dazzling Music

Every year since 1976, Southwest High School has had an outstanding band program under the direction of Oscar Jackson. Even after the dramatic size reduction when the school split, the band upheld their high standards, living up to Mr. Jackson's ideal that quality is always better than quantity. Performance after performance the Southwest Marching Band dazzled the crowd with their captivating half-time shows in a whirl of never ending excitement. But the band doesn't stop here.

SOUTHWEST

Each year the outstanding talent of this band is exhibited in a variety of parades. This year they performed in the Rose Parade in Thomasville and the Cherry Blossom and Christmas Parades in Macon.

It is no surprise that the Southwest Marching Band received a Superior Rating at the annual Middle Georgia Band Festival. Their classic style, combined with their discipline and precision, put them head and shoulders above any other band. The combination of Mr. Jackson's musical knowledge and the band's talent makes this band unbeatable.

MARCHING BAND

JAZZ ENSEMBLE

Jazzin' It Up

The legendary Southwest Jazz Ensemble is an extension of the spectacular Southwest band program. The Jazz band consists of students that have excelled in their musical abilities.

The Jazz band, under the direction of Oscar Jackson, performed many "gigs," such as the Chamber of Commerce Taste of Macon, The City of Macon Awards Luncheon, Cherry Blossom Pageant and the Golden Eagle Awards. The group received a superior rating at the Jazz Festival and the Most Outstanding Trumpet section. Desmond Tucker, Charles Lucas, James Gay and James Robinson received awards for outstanding soloists.

Thomas and P. Ogden take their performance seriously. A. Glover makes sweet music.

LATIN CLUB

Potentissimus Et Pulcherrimus

The Southwest Latin Club has done more than ever this year. Once again they collected money for the needy, and also worked with the Central and Southeast Latin students to promote interschool relations.

This year the Latin Club was led by their advisor, Robert Fightmaster, who was aided by the officers: Jennifer Dunlap - President, Becky

Smith — Vice President, Alpa Patel — Secretary, Misty Corbin - Treasurer, Jason Resha — Sergeant at Arms, and Brent Joyner — Project Chairman.

SPANISH CLUB

Muy Bien!

The Spanish Club, advised by Linda Bowden, did several community service projects, fundraisers, and exciting events this year. The club visited the Memorial Nursing Home, and helped their community by sponsoring a child through Save the Children. Other than doing volunteer work, they also had dinner at El Sombrero, participated in the Womanless Beauty Pageant, and helped raise money through a potato chip sale. The Spanish Club is an outgoing and fun organization, which takes the time to help out in their community.

Future Scientist At Work

The intellectual Southwest Science Club was advised by Richard Merchant this year. By encouraging students to use their scientific skills to compete in Science bowls, the Science Olympics, and other academic and science competitions; this club has made a definite academic difference.

But if that wasn't enough, these hardworking members also use their wide span of abilities to better the entire school and district by participating and helping to organize school and district Science fairs. These students, although young now, will be the future space shuttle pilots, founders of cures for diseases, and inventors of new technology.

The officers for this year's Science Club are: President Amy Merchant, aided by Sharon Smith — Vice President, and Tiko Glover - Secretary.

COMPUTER CLUB

Computing SW Minds

The Southwest Computer Club had a productive year under the leadership of Milton Ivery. As one of this year's many fundraisers, the club members sold Christmas cards. To enhance their knowledge of computers, and how they benefit society, they planned trips to many different computer facilities. The club took educational trips to the Georgia Institute of Technology and the Sears Claim Building. These trips gave the members an opportunity to experience the growing technology in the computer world.

The Right Stuff

The Southwest Academic Team definitely possesses the "Right Stuff." From intellect to speed, this team has demonstrated their talent all over the state of Georgia. This year's Academic Team competed in eight different competitions! The team, which consisted of eleven members, practiced every Wednesday after school with the help of advisor, Jim Barfield. The Southwest Academic Team is truly dedicated to academics, achievements, and creating a strong image for Southwest High School.

I Object!

The Mock Trial team had another successful year. The team, advised by John Mathews and Margaret Phillips, placed second in region competition. This accomplishment can be credited mainly to attorneys Hal McCard with Anderson, Walker, and Reiche and Brian Passante with Sell and Milton, who deserve a big "Thanks" for a job well done. Along with placing second, Calandra Johnson and Andria Maldonado were awarded Most Effective attorneys. Gail Ashcraft and Nicki Thurston received Best Witness.

MATH TEAM

Intellectual Minds

If $2+2=4$, then what do two math team members added together equal? Trouble, if you're the opposing team. This year's math team has done their best to give their foes fits. If you need a formula, a theorem, a mathematical concept just ask any member of this brilliant team.

Under the outstanding leadership of their advisors, Ms. Moore, Mrs. Tay- lor, Mrs. Simmons, and Mrs. Dickey, these members have exerted great determination and have climbed to the peak of their mathematical ability.

Summing It Up

Mu Alpha Theta is an organization that honors Juniors and Seniors who excel in mathematics. It also provides tutoring for students who find math difficult. Mu Alpha Theta activities include preparing goodies for the teachers and for the Middle School Math Meet, adopting a family during the holiday seasons, donating to the Make A Wish Foundation, and co-sponsoring the payment of the AP Calculus test. At the end of the year, Mu Alpha Theta holds a banquet in honor of their sponsors, Ms. Dickey and Mrs. Simmons.

Helping Out

The DECA Club, advised by Stacy Summers, had an active year. Not only were they competitive this year, but they were also helpful. Along with their participation in the DECA Convention, the club members also helped out with children from the Dove Center. These activities included a trip to the Macon Mall Quad, making Easter baskets and taking them goodies.

At DECA's District Competition, President Darrell Gillis presided. At the Competition, three out of twelve competitors went on to represent their chapter at the State Career Development Conference in Atlanta. They were: Darren Major in Business Speech, Samantha Pyers in Job Interview, and Darrell Gillis in General Marketing at Supervisory level.

Other DECA officers include Vice-President Melody Sanford, Secretary Misty Moss, Treasurer April Hanson, and Treasurer Georgia White.

Traditional Winners

The Vica Club has expressed capabilities and strengths traditional to Southwest. This year, they hosted the Georgia area skill Olympics. First place winners for Southwest were

Sammy Coons, Sabrina Adams, Paul Ogden, Brett Roquemore, Mack Harbuck, Tanyeka Dent, Brandon Fosky, Mike Jernigan, Marvetta Ammons, and Melanie

Brown. These winners participated in the District Competition at Vidalia High School with an excellent showing. This club was under the direction of Ronald Taylor.

On The Move

The Voca Club, advised by sixteen year veteran of CVAE and VOCA Club Maston Bell, participated in many activities this year. They competed in the Regional Contest held at Peachtree City. Members also competed in the State Convention held on St. Simon's Island.

Just a few activities VOCA club members participated in were trips to Underground Atlanta, Six Flags, the Georgia State Capital, and the CNN Building. For their own enjoyment, they held a Christmas party at Shakey's Pizza.

COSMETOLOGY CLUB

Beauty is More Than Skin Deep

Beauty goes more than skin deep for the Southwest Cosmetology Club. The advisor, Mrs. Childs, has led her dedicated members through a very productive year. They started off selling candygrams in February and continued through March selling chips. In October, a food drive for the needy was sponsored. During Christmas, members again showed their concern by collecting toys for less fortunate children. As an award for their outstanding effort, the members were given a dinner at the Olive Garden and an exciting trip to Six Flags.

On the Homefront

FHA I (Future Homemakers of America) works to develop leadership abilities and to enhance the home-making instincts of its members. The club also helps to benefit the community through various activities. This year, they held an Easter egg hunt for the children at a local day-care center and sold craft items as a fundraiser.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Janie Wach, the Future Homemakers of America have demonstrated their leadership capabilities, as well as a genuine concern for their community.

Further assistance was given to the club by Amy Liskey — President, Amy Connell — Vice President, Bonita Davis — Secreatry, and De-liha Payne — Treasurer.

Opening Hearts

FHA II opened their hearts to the community and their fellow citizens. They participated in the Toys For Tots and began a beautification project that included Southwest and the surrounding community. In addition, the members also presented "Vogue '91", a program in which members created original designs and then modeled those outfits. Throughout the busy year, they found the time to attend district meetings and a convention.

Mrs. Veronica Collins Calhoun, the advisor, was assisted this year by officers: Renina Jordan - President, Tiffany Regan — Vice President, Miranda Jones — Secretary, Regina Thomas — Treasurer.

Today's Students, Tomorrow's Leaders

This year's FBLA has shown why their name represents a promising future. As our future leaders, they are providing our students with an excellent example to follow. In April, FBLA students took part in the annual FBLA State Leadership Conference. The club also did service projects during the year to benefit the community and the school. They have collected grocery receipts in order for the school to win a computer and contributed food to a needy family. By making a difference today, they are proven future leaders of tomorrow.

Blooming With Excellence

It was another successful year for the Southwest Future Farmers of America. Advised by Erik Thompson, the club enhanced the appearance of the school through various beautification projects. They also sold a variety of plants that were grown in the school greenhouse. Members participated in the State Fair Horticulture Contest. Sharon Smith placed a strong fourth in the State Fair Market Lamb Show. Overall, it was a very productive year for the FFA Club. This year's club officers were: President — Macy Fox, Vice-President — Dawn Ray, Secretary — Mike Jernigan, and Treasurer — Scott O'Quinn.

Members:(L-R), M. Fox, A. Favors, D. McNeal, D. Ray, D. Rumney, M. Avery, S. O'Quinn, Mr. Thompson, R. Scott, D. Register, S. Evatt, J. Harding, K. Manning, Anderson, S. Smith, D. Batchelor.

LEO CLUB

Lending A Helping Hand

The members of the Leo club spent their year lending a helping hand throughout the year. During Halloween, Christmas, and Valentine's the members held parties in honor of the Georgia Academy for the Blind. They also assisted the Lion's Club in raising money for the blind and those with diabetes. Used eye-glasses and hearing aids that were collected by the Leo club members proved to be useful for those in need. The Leo club has definitely exemplified a caring attitude towards the community of Macon.

A Guiding Force

At Southwest High School, the Peer Counseling program seeks to enhance and develop the abilities of selected students in providing support and encouragement to fellow students. This program serves as an extension for guidance services and puts to good use Southwest's most abundant and valuable resources - it's students. During the year the Peer Counselors participated in an eighth grade orientation for upcoming freshman. Also, they attended a seminar that taught them effective and productive leadership abilities.

ART CLUB

Express Yourself

The Art Club is advised by Dannah Graham and Gregory Cubit. To start off the year, they made banners for the March of Dimes Walkathon. For their efforts, they received a plaque.

Not only are they artists, but cheerful givers as well. They gave nursing home residents candy and goodies for both Christmas and Easter. The Art Club also began a new tradition at Southwest by sponsoring the first annual Womanless Beauty Pageant. Last but not least, they hosted the Eighth Annual Art and Photography Show.

Brains and Brass

It is rare to find a student that is not only musically talented, but also academically gifted. The Band Honor Society, Omega Phi Delta, is an organization developed to recognize band members that maintain a 3.5 or above grade point average. Omega Phi Delta encourages band members to focus not only on their instruments but also their academics. Each member is given an Omega Phi Delta patch for their uniforms in recognition of their academic achievements as well as their superior musical performances.

PEP CLUB

Enthusiasm

The incessant sound of the bass drum beat a cadence for students to enter the Southwest gym in anticipation for a pep rally filled with excitement. Preserving the pride and spirit at Southwest, the Pep Club, under the direction of Geraldine Dumas, organizes many functions and trips which support our teams.

The annual Central "Funeral" started the year off, followed by the Sweetheart Coronation in February. In the spring the Pep Club sponsored a fun filled trip to Six Flags. Wrapping up the year, they sponsored the All-Sports Picnic at Lake Tobesofkee. This year the Picnic was dedicated to Coach Don Richardson in appreciation for his long service to Southwest.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Cream of the Crop

Student Council is one of the busiest organizations on our campus. The council puts up bulletin boards every month, paints signs during the fall in support of the football team, and plans assemblies. Also, the council puts out a monthly calendar which lets students and faculty know what is taking place. They help out in the offices, and anything else that is necessary. The Student Council is always ready to serve.

Under the advisement of Betty Stewart-Crossan, the Student Council planned one of its biggest events this year-Spirit Week. This week consisted of best supervision door contest, class pep rallies, hat day, Jean and jersey day, and class color day. All activities were aimed toward the coveted Spirit Stick, which was presented at the end of the week at the Homecoming game. The revival of the week was a large undertaking of the council and a great success. Student Council also planned the annual Spring Fling.

The Student Council holds elections every May to elect the class officers for the upcoming year. These students are selected by their peers to represent them in issues concerning the school.

Student Council has worked diligently. One can see from the efforts of the group why the school has had such a successful year. This group is definitely THE CREAM OF THE CROP!

MONTAGE

Imagination at it's Best!

Another year has come and gone and with it the creativity of the Montage staff has enhanced. Mrs. Cynthia Warren-Ross, the literary magazine's advisor, has led the staff to excellence once again. The entire staff has proved themselves capable of producing an admirable magazine. They were given a goal of gathering, laying out, and publishing literature. Every member contributed all of their efforts in reaching that goal. In addition to publishing a remarkable magazine, the staff also initiated the Kids Yule Love project at Southwest. Darren Major, the staff's Editor in Chief, placed first in the Gordon College Short Story Contest and the Georgia Power Writers contest. Tiko Glover won first place in the Macon Optimist Club's Oratorical Contest.

PATRI-ARTICLE

Expressing the Truth

One of the three student publications at Southwest High School is the awesome Patri-Article. Advised by Sue Kalbfleisch, the newspaper staff displayed excellent literary skills as they produced a record number of issues this year. Staff members attended a workshop at the University of Georgia in Athens to learn the necessary skills for writing news articles. Following the workshop, the staff participated in an awards luncheon. The Patri-Article staff has once again made Southwest proud! Editor-in-Chief — Sandra Moore, News Editor — Sonya McCoy, Editorial Editor — Sabrina Khatri, Feature Editor — Shemika Poole, Sports Editors — Vanessa Royal, Artists — Patrick Davis and Andy Coan, Reporters — Diedre Bonner, Theresa Wyche, Danielle Boyd, Latrena Heath, and Ronnie Lawson.

CHORUS

Southwest's Songbirds

Advised by Renee Kimberly the chorus has had a very productive year. To begin the year, they performed a holiday concert at St. Joseph's Catholic Church. All their hard work and effort paid off when they received all superior ratings at the GMEA Festival. Ending the year, their last performance was "Spring at the Grand" which was held in May.

Ms. Kimberly also directed this year's Show Choir. This special group performed along with the entire choir and also participated in separate activities, including a holiday concert at Bruce Elementary and McEvoy Middle schools.

This year marks Ms. Kimberly's last year at Southwest as she is getting married and moving to Texas. She will be missed by all her students.

KEY CLUB

Community Spirit

The Southwest High School Key Club, along with its two dedicated advisors, Virginia Phillips and Bitsy Phillips, has shown what community spirit is all about. The club started off the year by volunteering at Bill Boyd's Annual Over Seventy-five Birthday party. This activity was matched when club members dressed up as "Goofy Goblins" to raise money for the Children's Hospital. They also helped to spread school spirit by providing refreshments for teachers during Teacher Appreciation week.

Over the past few years the Key Club has "adopted" the Memorial Nursing Home and this year was no different. Key Club members visited the nursing home three times and helped sponsor their wheelchair parade. Another one of the Key Club's projects this year was to raise money for the Muscular Dystrophy Association by selling shamrocks during the month of March. With the many shamrocks displayed outside of Mrs. Phillip's room, the whole school was able to view its success. This year's Key Club officers were President-Teresa Hill, Vice-President-Amelia Cross, Secretary-Gail Ashcraft, Treasurer-Brandee Hancock.

BETA

Let the Record Show

Southwest Betas are a hit! They're the best that you can get! The Southwest chapter of the National Beta Club participated in a variety of activities this year as they strived towards excellence. This honor society requires a minimum grade point average of 3.5 from its 131 members, and is dedicated to the bettering of its school and community.

Led by Mrs. Gwen Bell and Ms. Judy Moore, along with four elected officers: President Warren Cray, Vice-President Karla Nelson, Secretary Andria Maldonado, Treasurer Brad Simmons, the Southwest Beta Club has a record of service and leadership. The Club's motto, "Let us lead by serving others" epitomizes the goal the club is determined to reach. Through activities such as bringing goodies for American Education Week, making Easter baskets for a local nursing home, and donating items to the Macon Rescue Mission, the club hopes to bring a change for the better to the Middle Georgia area. Another project which spread across a broader region was Military Mail Call. Beta members sent over 180 letters to service men and women all over the world who were supporting the U.S. in the Persian Gulf.

Each year the Southwest Beta Club attends the State Beta Convention in Atlanta. For the past three years, our Beta club has placed three candidates to state office, the most recent being Karla Nelson as State Beta Secretary. This year our club was awarded two trophies for their aid in a state wide project created by Warren Cray, a fundraiser to raise money for the American Cancer Society. We raised over $1,000 for this project and received a trophy for the most money collected for club and per member. Our Beta Club excelled in yet another competition as Kim Gilbert won first place in the talent competition for her rendition of "America the Beautiful."

All efforts put forth by the Southwest

Beta Club have touched the lives of many members of this community and for this the club was nominated for the J.C. Penney Golden Rule Award. Southwest Beta's are a hit...they're the best that any one can get!

Y-CLUB

Community Service

The Y-Club motto is to create, maintain and extend, throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character. Advised by Ida Jordan the club's community projects were giving Easter baskets and trick-or-treats to the Children's Home, Thanksgiving baskets to the needy, and Christmas candy to the nursing home. As school projects

Y-Club provided refreshments for the teachers during American Education Week, decorated the school's Christmas tree, and bought pizza for the basketball team.

Goblins Are Hospitable

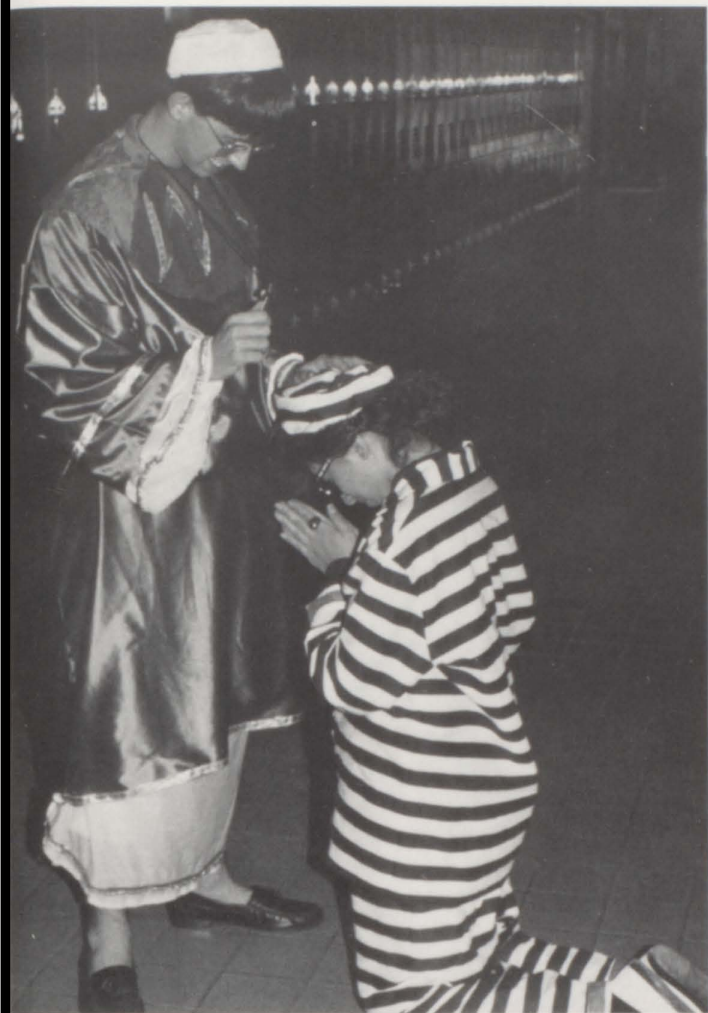

During the week of Halloween, Goofy Goblins from the Key Club marched the halls of Southwest collecting money to benefit the Children's Hospital of Macon. The members that participated in the project were truly dedicated to the central Georgia youth. On Halloween Day the Goblins came out in their creative costumes, giving new meaning to the word "goofy."

Key Club member Rosilind Johnson raised the largest amount of money during the activity, while Jennifer Dunlap donned the most ghoulish attire. Commenting on her costume, Mr. Givens with astonishment said, "she looks real. She looks dead."

Goofy Goblins have disappeared at Southwest, but fortunately for the Children's Hospital, the efforts of the Key Club members are still benefitting the hospital.

Last October, Southwest carried out the annual tradition of naming their Homecoming king and queen. Although the rain was pouring down, the drenched ground did not stop the crowning of the 1991 Homecoming Queen, Teresa Ayers, who has been a member of the Homecoming Court for four consecutive years. Absent from the ceremony was newly titled Mr. Southwest Tyrone Campbell.

A Gala Affair

The night of the Sweetheart Coronation was a gala affair. The coronation consisted of the girls modeling their favorite outfit and performing a dance routine. The males of the student body voted before the coronation for Miss Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, Senior and the coveted Miss Sweetheart. The coronation was held in the Willingham B Gym on February 13, 1991. The Pep Club, under the advisement of Ms. Dumas, sponsored the event. Oddly enough, there was a tie for the title of Miss Sweetheart between Tonia Greene and Danielle Boyd. Miss Senior — Akebulan Cliett, Miss Junior — Shanta O'Neal, Miss Sophomore — Renee Woodall and Miss Freshman — Lakeshia Jones. Congratulations to all of the young ladies.

Diamonds In The Rough

Dazzling, bold, unique diamonds — glittering amongst the hum-drum lockers and school books. Southwest students shining with a personal style all their own. Like the facets of a fine jewel, these students stand out among all the others, sparkling with individuality, seen in their garments, their expressions, their style. Truly they are diamonds in the rough.

We see them everywhere — “Images of Fashion” floating down the halls, through the malls, and even at Belk’s, who so graciously allowed our gems to pose among their “model” images. Twinkling, glistening, and expressing their individuality, Southwest diamonds are aglow with style.

P.Y.T. (Pretty Young Thangs)

On March 28, 1991, the Willingham B gym was filled with 14 contestants competing for the coveted title of Queen of the Womanless Beauty Pageant. This event was sponsored by the Art Club, choreographed by Miss Danah Graham, music provided by Mr. Greg Cubit, and Mrs. Pat Vinson was the official emcee. The contestants represented various clubs and organizations on campus. Each contestant participated in a group dance and an individual talent extravaganza.

The five finalists were Adrianna Harmon (Adrian), Dee Dee Ross (Deandre), Kenyatta Hollingshed (Kenya), Darlene Gillis (Darrell), and Jodine Holtzclaw (Jody). They answered a spontaneous question dealing with the way a woman(?) should be treated and what they would wish for if they were given a wish. Adrianna Harmon, the winner and Queen of the Womanless Beauty Pageant, revealed her thought that all women should be "loved and respected." The other winners were: 1st runner-up — Jodine Holtzclaw, 2nd runner-up — Darlene Gillis, 3rd runner-up — Kenyatta Hollingshed, and 4th runner-up — Dee Dee Ross.

Voices From the High School

Not since the Class of '88 has such a dedicated group of young actors taken on the difficult task of producing a Senior Play. Under the direction of Ms. Trudy Norris, the Class of '91 put forth every effort to make the play, "Voices From the High School" a success. The play dealt with many of the joys, sorrows, and problems high school students encounter. During the intermission the audience was entertained by a Teacher Rap entitled "Senior Retaliation," which consisted of 15 students portraying teachers and other faculty members.

Performances were given on March 13th and 15th, with standing room only on the 15th. People crowded into the auditorium in order to get a glimpse of the Southwest Senior Class of 1991 and their version of "Voices From the High School."

SPRING FLING

Spring fling is not a one day spree anymore; this year things began early in the week. Each day certain spring sports were honored, team players received badges to wear and an activity concerning that sport was available during lunch. Among the events was a slam dunk contest, Y-Club dance, and many amusing booths. Perhaps the most popular booth was the marriage booth sponsored by the Key Club. There was also a Car Smash to allow overworked students to vent their frustrations by smashing a teachers name on the car. But no festival would be complete without food to keep everyone's energy going. Student Council sold pizza and cokes and for dessert the students could satisfy their sugary cravings by visiting the Sweet Tooth Booth sponsored by the Annual Staff. The entire week was a huge success and more than broke the monotony of school.

Senior Jam

Senior week got off to a great start with seniors wearing their senior t-shirts on red, white, and blue day. On "kiddie" day, the seniors came to school dressed as small children and that night they had a dance at Olympia Skate Center. On the third day of Senior Week seniors dressed up as one would in the 1960's. On Future Day seniors dressed for their future vocation. That afternoon they went to watch the movie, "Toy Soldiers." The last day of Senior Week, seniors were honored at a Senior Honors Day followed by a luncheon. The final event of Senior Week was the senior skit, where fellow seniors portrayed comical future vocations.

The Junior-Senior Prom held on May 18, 1991 at the Macon City Auditorium was truly a night of sheer elegance and grandeur. For the first time in years the prom was held on a Saturday which allotted more time for primping and before the prom jitters. The Juniors realizing that the Seniors would be "Here and Now" but gone "Tomorrow," transformed the Auditorium into a palace of elegance and glamour.

Senior lead-out was the most rewarding moment of the evening. Each senior was granted a chance to parade across the stage. As the clock ticked closer to midnight, the suspense of who would be prom king and queen ended as Sabrina Adams and Carlos Johnson were crowned. This evening of magic shall forever be "Here and Now."

Young Acheivers

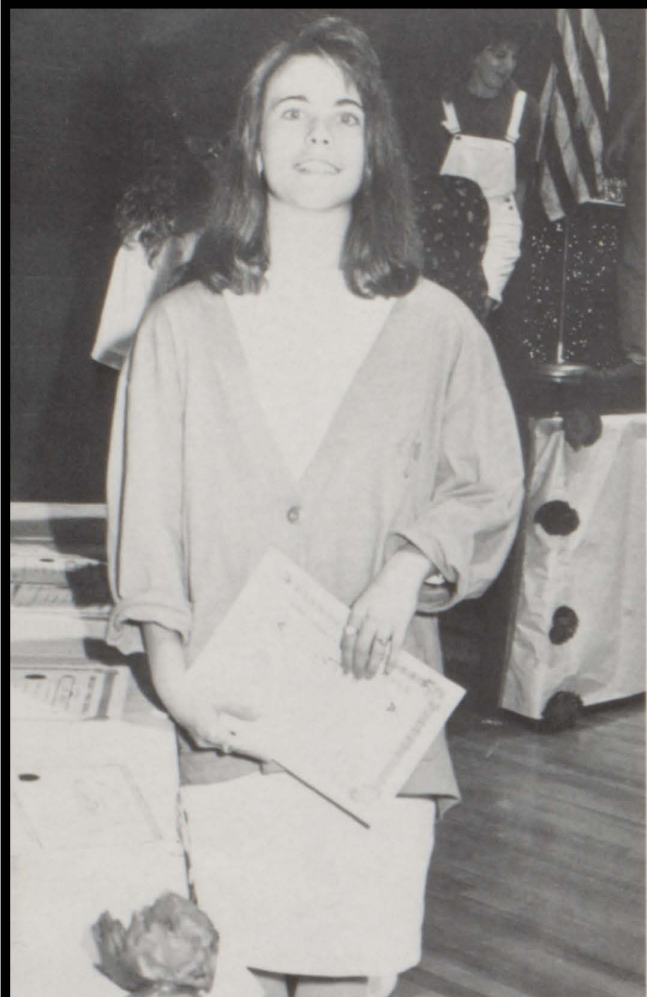

May 23, 1991 was a day of honor and recognition for many underclassmen. The morning began with the naming of Diana Becham and Cindy Chapman as the co-editors of the "Spirit of '92". Leaders need to be discovered early and recognized for their academic achievements, so numerous leadership and Academic Achievement Awards were presented.

A new category, Erskine Fellows, which requires a minimum of 1000 on the PSAT or the SAT, was introduced this year, recognizing recipients, Cindy Chapman and Rearcous Smith. Proud of the accomplishments he had witnessed, Dr. Watkins closed the morning with a round of applause for his young acheivers.

Impressive Images

One of the most anticipated days of the Class of '91 was Senior Honors Day. This event was held at St. Luke Baptist Church. Seniors, accompanied by Junior Guides and Junior Assistants, were bused to the church where they were honored for their many accomplishments.

Academic and athletic scholarships were presented to deserving seniors from various colleges and universities. Local sororities, fraternities and businesses also presented monetary awards to outstanding seniors. The Senior Class honored Ms. Cynthia Ross by presenting her with roses.

Golden Stars

Being Star Student is a tough task, but our Jennifer Dunlap put on her wings and soared to the top. She scored 1390 on the Scholastic Aptitude Test and was named Southwest's Star Student for 1991. Jennifer selected Mr. Richard Merchant, her biology teacher, as her Star Teacher.

Just as the eagle represents the Patriotism of America so did our nominees in this years Golden Eagle Competition. Each nominee from Southwest was highly qualified and prepared to compete with over one-hundred students from nine Middle Georgia counties in twelve different categories. Although not victorious, our nominees were "glistening images" of Patriot pride.

We're Outta Here

The Senior Luncheon was a good end to Senior Honors Day. The lovely decorations in the WB lunchroom were made by Dannah Graham. The invocation was given by Darren Major and Konswella Fields did a reading. The class was then entertained by a skit, set in the year 2001, depicting the future occupations of various members of the class. Joel Stenson was the new Arsenio Hall and Ursula Samples was a recording star. Enter bag lady Andria Maldonado and kleptomaniac Sharon Smith, along with janitor Boo-Boo Busbee and porn Queen Jennifer Chapman. Everyone had a great time.

Anxiety

Graduation, the culmination of our years of hard work, is the most wonderful and yet the most heart rending memory of high school. For four years students have been waiting for this night. It is now time to don blue caps and gowns and say goodbye. Everyone is overwhelmingly jubilant that they have made it through; they survived the roller coaster ride of adolescence, now they must board the most terrifying roller coaster of all, life. It's that realization which brings the tears and gentle hugs on graduation night as the graduates begin their next phase of life.

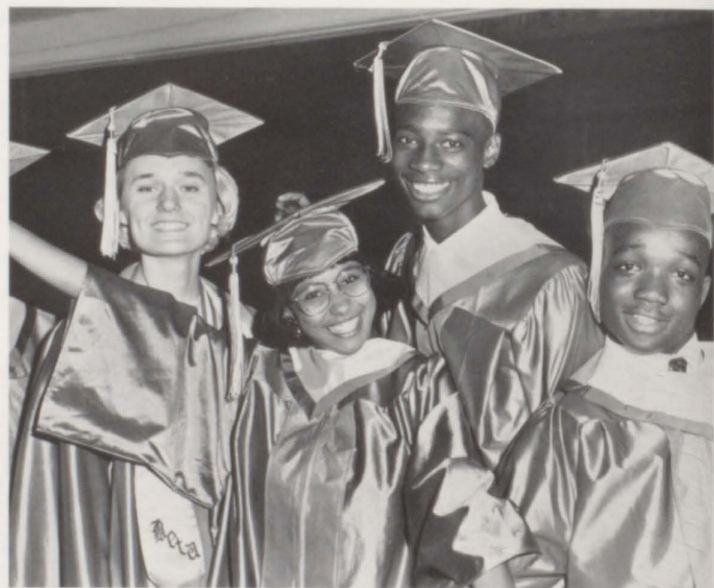

TOP, L-R: Switching the tassel into adulthood. "Yes, Mrs. Stewart, we're in our correct places," says H.Simmons. BOTTOM, L-R: Coons keeps cool and collected. Final Moments

The anticipated moment arrived as the graduates marched to their seats. They stood for the Pledge of Allegiance led by Jennifer Chapman, Complex President. Senior Class President, Joel Stenson, welcomed everyone. The audience then heard speeches by Andria Maldonado - Valedictorian; Sharon Smith — Salutatorian; and Algernon Wallace — Senior Speaker. These speakers reminded their fellow graduates to remember past lessons and prepare for those still to be learned. After the presentation of diplomas, Maurice Tripp, Senior Class Vice-President gave closing remarks.

TOP, L-R: Graduation speakers M. Tripp, A. Wallace, S. Smith, A. Maldonado, J. Stenson, J. Chapman. Watch out world here comes S. Wright. Thank you, Thank you, Thank you says L. Washington. BOTTOM, L-R: The Whipple twins do it again one more time. Can you believe I just graduatd exclaims C. Townsend. You're too slow Ms. Weaver, hurry up.

Imaginary

I MAGES

There are some images of our school days that can only be achieved in our dreams. . .

These "imaginary images" begin at the crack of dawn when you awake and realize you don't have to meet the "yellow cheese," but instead, a chauffeured driven limousine will arrive to transport you to school. Upon arrival, you rush to the restroom to glance at yourself, not in a small, cracked mirror in a restroom with doorless stalls, but you find yourself gazing into full-length mirrors in a beautiful lounge complete with automatic-lock stall doors. At 7:45 the supervision bell rings and, to your disbelief, you are escorted to your seat and served breakfast by an assigned waiter, dressed in "tux-n-tails." As supervision ends, you no longer have to fight the rush of the crowd, because now, your teachers come to you. Lunch convenes and you find your waiter once again at your service. After an elegant lunch, you can now relax for a few minutes in a beautifully landscaped park area on benches under shady trees, which have replaced the barren ground that surrounds the "dumpsters." While deciphering if this is a dream or reality, time has ticked away. With the ringing of the bell you return to your limo. . . Now what could make this image complete? Ahh — if there was only air conditioning!! Who can tell, one day some of our imaginary images of Southwest could become a reality.

Yearbook Staff — Creators of the Perfect Image

Deadline! Deadline! Deadline! That's what it's all about being a member of the Spirit of '91. From the end of one school term to the end of the following term, staff members commit themselves and their talents to hours of creative layouts, enthusiastic copy and eye-catching captions. At the Taylor Yearbook Workshop at Georgia Tech during the summer of 1990, Ms. Fugate and several staff members created another Sweepstakes Award Winner. Our theme of Images has allowed us to produce and uphold our image of excellence.

Staff members are constantly setting up pictures, running around selling ads, and listening to the screams and yells of "Fruitcake" to stay on top of what you're doing and get the job done. Being on Annual Staff is a tough job but when the book comes back in September we realize it's been worth all the hard work.

Deadlines Amuse Me!

A sign in the Annual Staff room reads "Deadlines Amuse Me! Ha-Ha." Deadline time is anything but amusing. It's hectic! Layouts must be drawn, pictures cropped, and copy written, and then it must be put on the computer. All this takes time and a lot of hard work. I was fortunate to have two super co-editors who kept up with everything. Becky Smith and Konswella Fields worked together to make sure the Spirit of '91 was of the same caliber as previous Southwest yearbooks. Any time I hollerd Becky or Swella they were right there with the answer to my question. They truly reflect the theme of this book — Images: for they are excellent examples of the images of loyalty, devotion to their jobs, determination, and responsibility. All these qualities are necessary to produce an award winning yearbook. My whole-hearted thanks go to these two young ladies for a job well done.

In putting together this book there were many people who contributed many hours of time and effort. Thanks goes to the entire staff of the Spirit of '91 for their hard work; a special thanks to computer specialists Diana Becham and Cindy Chapman, and to Jennifer Dunlap and Heather Crawford. There were also a number of people at Southwest who worked diligently to help make this yearbook a reality, without them the Spirit of '91 might not have existed. My appreciation goes to Janice Childers, Esterine Stokes, Jackie Richardson, and Dr. Columbus Watkins for all the long hours they spent in promoting the sale of the book. Thank you also goes to all the faculty members who helped with the special fundraiser and to the clubs who purchased ads in the book.

Images of Appreciation

Attempting to bring the best of two worlds together, we accepted the challenge to be co-editors of the Spirit of '91. This task has proven to be one of the most difficult parts of our senior year, yet it has been the most rewarding.

Contrary to many beliefs, having co-editors does not necessarily mean there is less work for each. In fact, the amount of work appeared to double.

Work is not the only memory we hold for the Spirit of '91. Fruitcake's famous shrieks, "Swellaal! Beckyyy! Where is . . . ?" (You fill in the blank). The numerous hours after school and even the weekends spent in the unairconditioned box we call the Annual Staff room were fun times, despite the many complaints we may give.

Many people contributed to this book other than just staff members. To our family and friends, thanks for the support and cooperation. To Ms. Fruitcake, thanks for the endless number of hours you have given to this book. You are the true spirit behind the Spirit of '91. We love you! We would also like to thank each staff member who truly and earnestly committed themselves to the production of the Spirit of '91.

Special thanks to Jennifer Dunlap and her mom for the extra efforts they have so graciously provided. Jennifer, your sympathetic ear and creative mind helped make this book come together.

This book is our pride and joy. We hope you feel as good about it as we do. The "images" of Southwest will continue on in our memories forever.
